

American Literature & Rhetoric 1e Resource List

Annotated Teacher's Edition (print and ebook-available in Achieve digital platform)

Resources (available in Achieve)

- Suggested Responses: to all the questions posed at the end of each text and the Grammar as Rhetoric and Style exercises in Chapters 5–10, as well as to the activities in Chapters 1–4.
- Editable Rubrics. for the Culminating Activity prompts in Chapters 1–4 as well as the Topics for Composing and Suggestions for Writing prompts in Chapters 5–10.
- Instructional Strategies: These tips describe how to use each strategy for a clearly defined purpose.
- Activity handouts/graphic organizers.
- Annotation Handouts: Brief, rich excerpts from readings that are ideal for annotation.
- Vocabulary Handouts.
- Student Sample Essays: These additional papers by high school students model writing essential to success in American literature as well as AP® English Language.
- Editable Pacing Guides: for teaching your course chronologically, thematically, aligned to the units of the AP® English Language course, and in units built around commonly taught works of American literature.
- Grammar Workshop handouts and answer keys.
- ELL Essential Guide Handouts. These handouts provide vocabulary definitions, extra background information, and previews of the texts.
- Digital collection of full-length works

Test Bank

- Over 1400 Questions
- Ch 1-4: 1 file of comprehension MCQs per Chapter
- Ch 5-10: 1 set of MCQ questions per Reading (nonfiction are AP-style, fiction and poetry are non-AP)
- + 1 file of AP-style Writing MCQs
- + 1 file of AP-style Argument FRQs
- + 1 file of AP-style Rhetorical Analysis FRQs
- Delivered via email