

BFW offers SO many more options for your Literature Courses

Available for Classes

Fall 2024

BFW Literature textbooks offer a vast array of options – literally hundreds of short stories, poems, as well as longer works like plays.

But we know that every literature teacher appreciates some variety, so we've expanded our offerings with our online Digital Library, which includes many classic and contemporary full-length works.

Every English textbook includes this complete set of full-length works through our Achieve courseware. E-books contain translations, public domain notes, and interactive elements to actively engage students with the texts.

Turn the page to see a complete listing – but do note: we are regularly adding new works to this library. The very best way to see the up-to-date offerings is to schedule a one-on-one walk through of Achieve. Visit <https://go.oncehub.com/HSAchievePlatformDemo> to sign up for a demo.
